LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. S. M. Craig of Anderson is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cogburn.

Mrs. Sabina Lewis Jones of Charleston is here visiting her sister, Mrs. S. McGowan Simkins.

Mr. W. E. Huff of Greenwood is a visitor in Edgefield. He has been cordially greeted by his friends.

Mrs. Carrie Dorn of Celestia, Saluda county, is visiting her son, Mr. W. H. Dorn.

Mrs. John K. Aull and her sweet little daughter are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Tompkins.

Mrs. Arthur Deveney of Augusta has been the guest of Mrs. Lucy Dugas for the past week.

Mr. J. U. Rives has gone to Greenville to see his daughter, Miss Gladys Rives, who is a student at the Greenville Female college.

Mrs. R. H. Parks was carried to the hospital in Columbia Saturday for special treatment. She has been in ill health for nearly a year.

Miss Eula Rowelle, a very attractive young lady from Bamberg, spent Sunday and Monday with Miss Grace Dobson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cogburn left for Atlanta yesterday to attend the marriage of their youngest son, Mr. J. Carroll Cogburn, which will take place at noon to-morrow.

Can't you see it? See what? Why, "The Face at the Window." No. Well, you can see it at the opera house, Friday night, April 18.

In an advertisement this week Mr. John R. Tompkins announces that he has accepted a position with the Spartanburg Marble and Granite Works and solicits your orders for monuments and tombstones.

Mr. John C. Sheppard, Jr., is down from Asheville visiting his parents, Ex-Gov. and Mrs. J. C. Sheppard's friends are delighted to learn that his condition shows marked improvement.

There are only four first-class male quartets in the lyceum world to-day, and the Orpheans is one of them, and that should be praise enough for any musical combination—Elias Day, Oak Park, Chicago.

Cotton Weigher J. G. Byrd has up to this date weighed 5,660 bales, while for the same period last season he had reached nearly 8,000 bales. Mr. Byrd is nearing the end of his second year and will offer for a second term as cotton weigher. He has made a good record.

Col. S. B. Mays told The Advertiser's representative a few days ago that he has about half a crop of fruit left. Pears have been injured more than peaches. As Col. Mays' orchard is located on a high hill, he never fails to have ample fruit for home consumption; and generally realized a considerable sum from peaches that are shipped to northern markets.

Mr. W. H. Turner has purchased from Mr. David Strother the place where Mr. B. F. Zimmerman resides. He has made no definite announcement as to bringing his family back to Edgefield to live, but Mr. Turner's friends are hopeful that the purchase of this property indicates that some time, probably within the next year, Mr. and Mrs. Turner will come back to their first love.

The friends of Mrs. M. E. Barker will be pleased to learn that she has decided to return to Edgefield to make her home. Since she left as Mrs. Barker has been greatly missed, especially in the religious life of the community. She will come to Edgefield about the 1st of June. Dr. M. D. Jeffries who is now occupying the residence of Mrs. Barker will probably rent the pretty new home of Prof. Entzinger near the college.

Mr. H. M. Reynold, Mrs. A. E. Padgett and Miss Kate Samuel spent Sunday in Greenwood. They went up in an automobile Sunday morning and returned in the afternoon. Miss Natalie Padgett came down from Greenville and met Mrs. Padgett at Greenwood. She came to Edgefield Sunday afternoon and remained until Monday afternoon, when she returned to her college duties at the G. F. C.

Miss Margaret Reel has closed her school near Troy and is at home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Holland left for Asheville Monday. Mr. Holland has closed a contract with the Asheville baseball league for the season.

The governor of Pennsylvania has granted the requisition and Mr. J. E. Mims is expected to arrive from Philadelphia with the negro, Joe Grant, Thursday night.

Mrs. Susan Daniel, Miss Emma Daniel, Mrs. Bettie Allen and Mrs. Mary Ashley were guests of Mrs. J. L. Mims Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Daniel had not seen their cousin, Mrs. Ella Duckworth, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mims, in nearly fifty years.

The friends of Mr. W. J. Harling were glad to see him in Edgefield Monday. Since he was here last he has been seriously ill, spending some time in the hospital in Augusta, but we are happy to chronicle the fact that he is steadily improving. As everybody is a friend of Jack Harling there was universal solicitude while he was seriously ill.

Large assortment of single and double harness for both buggies and wagons. We can suit you in kind and price.

Ramsey &amp; Jones.

Mr. J. C. Self, Mrs. M. C. Self, Mrs. J. H. Self and Miss Callie Self spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mims. Mrs. M. C. Self and Mrs. Ella Duckworth were very intimately associated in their girlhood days and attended college together. They had not seen each other before in many years.

Opera House, April 18.

"The Face at the Window" is the name of the play which will be given in the opera house by the Dixie chapter Friday night April 18. The young ladies have given much time and work to the play and we have reason to believe that it will be exceedingly entertaining. A fuller notice, including the cast of characters and synopsis, will be given next week.

S. C. C. I. News.

On Friday we played baseball with Aiken. Although our team tried their level best our side lost with a score of 7 to 4. The Aiken pitcher is about the best pitcher we have ever encountered on the field. In the game he struck out seven men in three innings. Our fine pitcher was nearly up to him having one man less struck out than the Aiken pitcher. The game was exceedingly fine; a very large crowd being present. The cheering for both sides was both loud and good. In two more weeks we hope to play a return game with them and this time we hope to beat them if we can. Several more games with neighboring towns are being arranged.

Fift sergeant Kilgore A. of Company B was the successful winner of the old cadet's medal in the monthly drill. Private Edens M., of Company A won the recruit medal. Maj. Lyon is now practising us on the skirmish line just as if we were preparing for a real battle. All the boys seem to take a great interest in this new phase of drill, some I'm afraid because they have to.

Rev. E. C. Bailey of the Presbyterian church was with us Friday morning and spoke earnestly on the Christian virtues. We always enjoy Mr. Bailey and we hope he will favor us again with another talk.

The S. C. C. I. stenography class, under Miss Lois Cain of Sumter, hopes to turn out by the end of school ten full fledged well equipped stenographers. Miss Cain is putting out all her own knowledge as well as the book knowledge in teaching her pupils. The class is made up of six girls and four boys.

A crowded auditorium witnessed the graded school entertainment Monday night. The principal, Miss Minnie Dicks, is to be congratulated on the fine treat that she gave us, also we must thank her able assistants. It was a great success. The college orchestra kindly furnished us with music between the different parts.

By a new order read out Monday the cadets will have to report to their companies for drill every morning at 7:15. This means more exercise than they have been having.

The Y. M. C. A. had a nice little meeting Sunday night. There were no speakers but we had a song service. Part of the faculty rendered a fine musical selection.

No Pierian or Fideian Literary Society meetings were held Monday as the graded school requested that we let them have the auditorium for decorating.

Young Cedar Creek Farmer Writes Interesting Letter.

Editor The Advertiser: I will attempt to give you a few happenings from the immediate locality of Cedar Creek. This is the name of the creek which runs through our farm for two miles. It rises in front of Mr. S. E. Morgan's home on lands owned by Mr. A. B. Covar, where the clay was obtained and hauled to Mile's Mill or pottery and made in to fine earthen ware many years ago. It then runs in westward direction through Charlie Cheatham's place to Mrs. J. M. Cobb's Abney place, through Henry Cohen's, Mrs. Mary J. Norris and Mr. L. T. May's, the wide-awake merchant prince of Edgefield. Thence to Mr. J. A. Mays, the champion bird hunter and truck farmer, on through J. M. Mays', J. W. K. Smith's to C. H. Wells, the great financier of Edgefield county, almost to the equal of the late J. Pierpont Morgan in business prosperity. Thence to lands of Mr. Frank West, Hon. Thos. H. Rainsford and Dr. C. P. DeVore, who owns the hills and valleys of Cedar Creek and Horn's Creek by the thousands. Cedar Creek empties into Horn's Creek just below Dr. DeVore's old mill site. Now this is what I know of Cedar Creek. It runs through some as fine lands as ever a crow flew over.

My school is not yet out, but I had to stop the first of March to take a special course in farming. We did not do much plowing until the past ten days but have made good progress since then. We commenced to plant corn on the 29th March and have planted about forty acres, only have about 10 acres more to plant. The oat crop is promising and more than usual was sown. We will not plant much cotton. Have a special cotton and corn patch this year and will join your corn club. I want to get into the bale-pen-acre-to-fifty-bushel class. I intend to make the improving of cotton and corn a specialty.

Mr. J. R. Cantelous is plowing up the finest field of oats I ever saw. He surely wants a cotton crop to plow up those oats. The land was sown in oats last year than sown in peas then in fall bedded with two horse plow. The oats are simply fine and are over half a stand.

We want to plant some cotton seed by the 15th. Our neighborhood is taking on some new life. Mr. S. D. Mays, who is carrier on R. F. D. No. 2, has completed and moved into his cosy cottage on High Point Hill. He has a beautiful view of the surrounding vicinity.

Mr. J. Yancy Bryan, that get-up-and-get cotton farmer, has bought a part of the Jasper Miller tract and cut every briar, bush, tree on it. He has broken it up thoroughly and harrowed same, then terraced and ditched it. He has bedded it up and is now ready to plant in the best of shape. He says he expects to make enough clear over and above actual expenses to pay for the land this year.

Mr. Bud C. Byran has bought Mrs. Sallie Collett's place and moved on it. He is doing some fine work there. Bud is a hustler. No doubt he will do well.

Mr. L. T. May has bought a place from Mrs. E. H. Talbert on the Boulevard road.

Mr. W. E. Ouzts has had a quantity of fine lumber sawed and has built a barn and will erect a modern cottage when his crops are laid by this summer.

Col. S. B. Mays and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kemp and family, Eddie Talbert and Mrs. S. D. Mays spent Sunday night with us.

Mr. B. L. Holston and family spent Sunday with Mr. Bud Bryan and family.

This being my first letter will close wishing you and your good paper much success and thanking you for the space and your patience.

Fred L. Mays.

OUGHT TO PAINT.

I ought to have painted last year, but I hated to pay $2.25 a gallon. I've got to paint this year, it'll take a little more paint; I suppose 1 gallon in 10; and a little more work, I suppose 1 day in 10.

My job would have cost last year about $2.50; it is going to cost this year $55.00.

$2.50 gone. I suppose it'll be the same again, if I wait again. What if paint goes down to $1.75 a gallon? $2.50 on the job! I shan't wait; what a fool I was! Stewart & Kernaghan sells it.

Letter From Cleora School.

As I see so many nice letters from all other schools, I will write from Cleora. We have a very nice school, with from forty to fifty scholars enrolled. Our teachers are Miss Hill and Miss Collins from Leesville. On Saturday last the school children gave a delightful basket picnic, which was enjoyed by all. The day was spent fishing and boat riding. At 1 o'clock the dinner was spread upon the ground, and you know everybody was happy at that time. Look out girls and boys, you had better stop that "turkey trot," and "bunny hug" you know you would hate to pay a $300 fine just to dance with your sweetheart a little.

The farmers have had some beautiful days for preparing to plant their crops and every way you look, you can see the ladies smiling on every side because they can work their garden.

Mr. W. A. Strom was down last week on business.

Mr. M. A. Christie has purchased a young mule.

Mr. John Hill and his son, Henry Hughes, spent last Friday on Turkey creek fishing. Mr. Hill is counted the best fisherman in our community.

Mr. John McGee and daughter, Miss Julia, made a business trip to Edgefield last Saturday.

Mr. Tom Mathis of Red Hill is making his trips mighty often near Cleora. What does that mean?

Messrs. Milton and Herbert Walker, two of our old soldiers have been on the sick list for some time. We are glad to report that they have greatly improved during the last week.

Mrs. Leila Reardon and sisters, Misses Lottie and Carrie Corley, were the welcome guests of their cousins Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Corley last Tuesday.

Mr. Jim Rearden from North Carolina has come to make his home with his brother Mr. G. T. Rearden.

Mr. L. R. McGee made a flying trip to Pleasant Lane last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Reel made a flying trip to Edgefield last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim Christie spent last Sunday afternoon with the former's father, M. A. Christie.

Chrysanthemum.

Coughs and Consumption.

Coughs and cold when neglected, always lead to serious trouble of the lungs. The wisest thing to do when you have a cold that troubles you is to get a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. You will get relief from the first dose, and finally the cough will disappear. O H Brown, of Muscadine, Ala., writes: "My wife was down in bed with an obstinate cough, and I honestly believe had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, she would not be living to-day." Known for forty-three years as the best remedy for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00. Recommended by Penn & Holstein, W E Lynch & Co.
